

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

WRS ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl of 17 years and wonder if it is proper to invite a boy into your home when he accompanies you home?

(2) I know of a boy who asked a girl to go to an entertainment with him. In the meantime he took another girl to moving pictures. Should the first girl break the engagement or not?

(3) I am another girl of 16 years and am acquainted with a nice young man, but he does not come from a very good family. Should I accept attentions from this young man?

(4) If a fellow goes with me one night and with some of my friends the next night, and then wishes to go with me again the third night, should I accept him? CHUMS.

(5) It is not necessary to invite him in, but if the hour is not late and you are sure your parents have not gone to bed, you might ask him to come in for a little bit before he returns to his home.

(6) Well, now, why shouldn't he go with more than one girl, my dear? The first girl would be showing herself very foolish and jealous to break a simple social engagement because the young man who invited her also takes out other girls. He isn't your husband, you know.

(7) You are too young to accept attentions from anybody without your parents' consent, so consult them about this young man and abide by what they think is best.

(8) Why not? You have no mortgage on him.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 13.

(1) Will cocoa butter fatten the legs?

(2) Give me a good tonic that will make me stout.

(3) What kind of a coat is going to be worn this winter for girls of 14 years?

(4) Am I too young to go with boys?

(5) Is this proper, every time I meet my friend he says, "Here comes my sweetheart!" and I say, "There is my honeybunch!" BEAUTY.

(1 and 2) I think exercise and good wholesome food will fatten your legs more than anything else, my dear. You will grow fatter as you grow older, anyway. Practice walking about a good deal on tiptoes, to enlarge the calf of the leg. Running exercises are good, too. Walk from the hips and on the balls of the feet. Drink a lot of good milk, if it agrees with you; eat plenty of bread (homemade) and butter, good soups, well-cooked oatmeal and cream, plenty of eggs and other wholesome food. Exercise outdoors as much as you can and learn to breathe deep.

(3) Norfolk coats are very popular; also belted coats with deep collars, patch pockets and wide cuffs. Some of these are cut away in front. Chinilla is one of the most liked cloths for coats.

(4) Too young to think of them as lovers.

(5) I can't say that it is improper, dearie, but it sounds a little bit foolish.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 13 years old and lately my hair is falling out. Please tell me what makes it fall out and what to do so as to keep it from falling out.

CONSTANT READER.

The hair is apt to fall out in the fall and as a rule one need not feel alarmed about it unless an unusual quantity comes out. It might be a good idea to dust a little bit of powdered sulphur on the scalp. See that your hair brushes and combs are kept scrupulously clean. Once a week dip the brush into a saucer of kerosene and brush the hair thoroughly with this. Give the hair an egg shampoo about every three weeks and be careful not to take cold after washing your head. Massage the scalp vigorously and brush the hair well every day.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Which initial should be used on an engaged girl's household linen?

CONSTANT READER.

Use the initials of the girl's maiden name.

hostess, and tiny blue baskets filled with candies were given as favors. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts for her new home.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Caufield of this city and Arthur Hussard of East Moline will take place Tuesday evening, Dec. 23. The bride will be attended by Miss Grace Ralsch and Robert Caufield.

PUPILS PRESENT PROGRAM.

The piano pupils of Mrs. Grace Wolsey-Roberts, late of Cologne, Germany, presented a fine program at the teacher's studio, 731 Nineteenth street last evening. Parents and friends of the performers were the guests and greatly enjoyed the following program:

"Military Polonaise" (No. 4, Chopin) Mrs. J. Collier
Etude No. 5, duet..... Mrs. J. Collier
Harry Davis and Charles Motz
"Coronation March," duet.....
Harry Davis and Mrs. Roberts
"Wild Roses"..... Arthur Stauchbach
"Les Sylphs" (Bachmann).....
Miss Dorothy Cheney
"Humoresque" (Dvorak), Harry Davis
"Frühlings Rausching" (Sinding).....

Trio—Piano and violin, Mrs. Roberts, Virginia Wichey and Arthur Stauchbach. The pupils acquitted themselves in an admirable way and won the applause of the company.

Mrs. Roberts, who has lately opened a studio at 731 Nineteenth street, began her studies at the Chicago Musical college. She studied with Mrs. A. M. Virgil in New York city, with Giuseppe Aldo Randegger at New York and completed her studies at Cologne, Germany, with the best teachers. She possesses letters from the leading musicians of the world all of whom speak in the highest praise of her work.

MISS JUNGLE IN RECITAL.

Under the auspices of the In His Name circle of King's Daughters, Miss Lillie Jungie yesterday afternoon at her home, 519 Twenty-third street, entertained at a most delightful song recital. The rooms of the home presented a very attractive appearance with decorations of pink and white rose buds, hyacinths and ferns and formed a pretty setting. Miss Jungie was accompanied at the piano by her sister, Miss Olga Jungie, and together they presented a program that was a great pleasure. Miss Jungie has a soprano voice of wonderful sweetness and purity and she uses it with full understanding of its powers and qualifications. Her tones are sweet and full, and her enunciation is almost perfect. She sang four groups of songs and responded with a number of encores at the persistent demand of her audience. Her program was as follows:

"Open Thy Blue Eyes"..... Massenet
"The Hills of Sky"..... Harris
"Oh, Let Night Speak of Me" Chadwick
"Thine"..... Bohm
"Morgen-Hymne"..... Henschel
"Als Die Alte Mutter"..... Dvorak
"Wigmung"..... Schumann
"Ich Grolle Night"..... Schumann
"Sunset"..... Buck
Sea Pictures..... Elgar
(a) "In Haven"
(b) "Sabbath Morning at Sea"
"Moon and Night"..... Hawley
"When Love is Done"..... Hawley
"His Lullaby"..... Carrie Jacobs Bond
"What's in the Air Today"..... Eden

The audience was large, as many attending as could be accommodated and the circle will realize a nice sum for carrying on its charity work.

CLUB PLANS DEDICATION.

At a meeting of the Reliance club of Grace Lutheran church, held last evening with Lawrence Carlson, 529 Forty-third street, plans were discussed for the dedication of the new annex to the church, the date being set for Dec. 29. Prof. Andrew Kempe was appointed chairman of the program committee and J. Hasselquist was made general chairman in charge of arrangements. The topic for discussion for the evening was the liquor question pro and con and a lively interest was manifested in the subject, the entire membership taking part in the discussion. During the social hour refreshments were served.

FOREIGN MISSION SOCIETY.

The Woman's Foreign Mission society of the First Methodist church held a meeting last evening with Mrs. F. A. Van Galder, 1019 Twentieth street. After a short business session the program of the evening was taken up. Mrs. F. K. Rhoads told of the first commencement at a Chinese high school. Mrs. S. E. Mattison gave an account of the executive meeting at the Tokio and extracts from the same report were given by other members of the society. Miss Violet Doney pleased with two songs by Carrie Jacobs Bond "His Lullaby" and "The Sand Man." Mrs. Mattison read an interesting letter from a missionary whom the local society supports in India. The evening came to a close with a social hour and the committee from the society served lunch.

SWEDISH LADIES MEET.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Swedish Lutheran church held a large-ly attended meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Augusta Freeman, 608 Third avenue. Following the opening devotional exercises the time was given over to general sociability and the hostess served a delicious lunch.

TO HONOR MISS KAHLKE.

Miss Nell Kahlke, whose marriage to C. A. Wagner of Montgomery, Ala., is an event of Saturday, Dec. 13, was the honoree at a very pretty party given yesterday afternoon by the aunt of the bride-elect, Mrs. S. J. Woodin, 922 First avenue, the affair taking the form of a kitchen shower. Fifteen ladies of the neighborhood were guests and a most delightful afternoon was enjoyed. Mrs. Woodin had trimmed her home to carry out the chosen colors of the honoree, yellow and white, using lovely chrysanthemums in baskets and vases. The ladies were given dust cloths to feather stitch and mark and Mrs. Oscar Lill drew the first prize for completing her work the quickest and Mrs. H. W. Reed received the consolation prize for the last to finish. Miss Kahlke was presented with many very nice kitchen utensils and Mrs. Woodin presented her with a handsome quilt. During the afternoon a luncheon was served, the courses carrying out the yellow and white color scheme. Miss Kahlke will be the honoree at a number of pre-nuptial parties next week. Miss Bessie Sangren entertaining Tuesday, and Miss Anna Lill Wednesday. Mrs. R. H. Hoffman at her home on Twenty-eighth street recently gave a pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower as a courtesy for Miss Kahlke.

FRESHMEN HAVE BANQUET.

The freshmen class of Augustana college, 79 strong, pulled off a banquet at the Rock Island Y. M. C. A. last evening much to the surprise of their foes, the sophomores. The members of the class reached the banquet hall safely with the single exception of one man who was kidnapped but was later released and reached the hall in time to enjoy the dinner. The freshmen likewise captured a soph and entertained him a good part of the evening. The crowd was chaperoned by Miss Iva Pearce of the college faculty and Miss Jennie Sturgeon of the high school faculty, both responding to toasts. Various members of the class gave short talks and a number of readings were given by Miss McLaughlin and the college orchestra composed largely of members of the class gave a number of selections. After the serving of a course banquet the hours were devoted to games and contests and proved very enjoyable. While the freshmen were enjoying their banquet the sophs went to their rooms and managed to pilfer a large number of class caps which they strung on a cord and hung in the college chapel. However, the freshmen surmised that something was going to happen and early this morning went to the chapel before the sophs were stirring and managed to regain their lost possessions, much to the surprise of the foe.

MISS CAUFIELD HONOREE.

Miss Grace Ralsch at her home, 316 Fifth street last evening entertained at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Myrtle Caufield, a bride of this month. Games and music were the diversion of the evening and favors in the contest went to Miss Julia Johnson, Miss Emma Nessle, Miss Myrtle Pahl and Miss Mary Gillespie. The rooms were decorated in the bride elect's chosen colors, blue and white. The dining table had as its center piece a large basket filled with pink roses, hyacinths and smilax. A two-course luncheon was served by the
